3.4 Size of building:

Approximately 25' x 38" as shown on plot plan for construction of the club house (Building 033). A photograph (X23655) furnished by Mrs. Park Holcomb, widow of the first caretaker at the golf course, shows a shed added to the west side. The shed appears to be about 10' wide.

B. PLANNING & CONSTRUCTION

This structure was built by Athletic Department personnel shortly after the land was acquired in 1929. It appears in a 1930 photograph (X22656) furnished by Mrs. Holcomb.

The date of the addition on the west side is not known, but it appears in a 1933 photo (x22655) furnished by Mrs. Holcomb.

The original part of H325 was erected on an old barn foundation, according to Mrs. Park Holcomb.

C. DEMOLITION

An unsigned, undated report, apparently written late in 1939, indicates that this building was torn down in 1939 (Ra).

E. MISCELLANEOUS

This building is said to have been built from free lumber brought from the main campus by Tony Aquila, and served as an all-purpose building until replaced by the service building (035).

When golfing began, this structure served as temporary quarters for the golf pro and caddies until April, 1939 at which time the first floor of the club house (033) was ready for their use. (Ra)
